

Combining performance experience in the Broadway, Cabaret, A cappella and Classical worlds with friendships stretching across 20 years, VOCE is driven by a passion to bring high quality music to the public. This award winning quartet hails from three separate regions of the United States – Stephen Wilde (tenor) New York NY, Keith Harris (lead) New York NY, Paul Harris (baritone) Madison WI, and Dave Kindinger (bass) Columbus OH. VOCE modernizes a cappella music in a hip, edgy and sophisticated manor, they spread their wings and stretch a cappella stereotypes performing pop, jazz, doo-wop, cabaret, Broadway, madrigal, and barbershop.

VOCE has toured throughout the United States performing in venues including: the Van Wezel in Sarasota FL, the Performing Art Center in Appleton WI, and Jim Caruso's Cast Party at Birdland in New York NY; as well as hosting the "All Ensemble" evening at the Bistro Award-Winning and MAC Nominated Salon - hosted by Mark Janas.
